A not-for-profit school and gallery dedicated to fine craft since 1952

Dear Friend.

For 65 years, Brookfield Craft Center has been dedicated to teaching and preserving the skills of fine craftsmanship, fostering creativity and supporting working artists at our historic campus in Brookfield, CT. The past few years have been exciting ones as we have reopened our wood turning studio, doubled the size of the Good Forge, established a scholarship program for learning wood turning, added new youth classes and programs, expanded our teaching roster and advanced the work of many esteemed artists through our exhibition and gallery program. This has only been possible due to the dedication and support of our volunteers, contributors, instructors, sponsors and contributing artists.

To celebrate the many contributions the BCC has made to our community and help ensure that our programs continue to provide a place to learn and grow in a nurturing and creative artistic space well into the future, we will host a 65th Anniversary cocktail party and auction on Sept 16, 2017 at the Visual and Performing Arts Center on the Western CT University Westside campus in Danbury. With over 150 people expected to be in attendance, this celebration is a great opportunity to get your work and or business in front of a community of art enthusiasts and artists.

Please be part of the celebration by donating a piece of art, a class, a tour, an event or any experience that celebrates the creative spirit.

We thank you very much for your consideration of this request. An auction form is attached, please return to Amber Vlangas, BCC Manager of Charitable Giving by July 14, 2017.

Sincerely,

Onward 65
Auction Committee Member
